Continued Easy.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. New York, Aug. 13.—The London market was again mactive and showed some tendency to sag for that reason. Consols declined 1/2 to 98/4 and the general market was heavy. American stocks lost in the earlier part of the day, but recovered later. Quotations, however, were wide and very nominal. Money continued easy, although the Bank of Ergland did not see fit to change its rate from 4 per cent. The return showed the position of the banks considerably stronger, with an increased proportion of reserve to Habilities and a gain in bullion on the week. This, of course, was due to the American gold shipments. Chinese news the American gold shipments. Chinese news was indefinite and there seemed to be some signs of trouble in Eastern Europe.

In the local market, although there was a little more activity than on Wednesday, trading was exceedingly narrow and confined to one or two specialties. The strength in Jersey Central was worth noting, and it may be taken as certain that strong interests are buying for control. It is quite obthe execulative and of Well street shall take soon as anything like a bull account is opened the inside buying stops. The buying in St Louis Southwestern issues has been of a good character and there is fairly good reason for believing in a dividend declara-tion for the preferred in the not far distant future. Granger stocks have been hard but inactive. People's Gas shows evidence of pressure from Chicago, with support from the Wormser pool. The Ogden deal is blocked until the Chicago politicians can be spared. The close was rarry hard, with a continuance of good buying in St. Louis Scutherstern. continuance of good buying in St. Louis Southwestern issues and a rumor current that the preferred stock would be put on a sper cent dividend basis. Trading elsewhere was not large, and the fear of strikes in the anthracite coal trade checked the buying of Readings and Jersey Central. Brookiyn Transit was rather inclined to self off on the absence of the promised supplementary report. The borrowing demand mentary report. The borrowing demand showed a fair short interest, especially in showed a fair short interests the Grangers.

The Chinese situation is very little altered, but the decline in British consols is likely to cause some anxiety that the feeling among the Powers may not be very carmonious. While the rumored Russian ways has been contradicted. armonious. While the rumored Russian foan in New York has been contradicted, there is very little doubt that all the European Powers will have to borrow money, and the continuous pressure of Russia to get troops to the Far East, in view of the occupation of Pekin by the allies, is ominous. If Russia borrows money it is much more likely to be in Paris than here, and such security as she can offer is not likely to be very attractive to the American investor. In this connection the renewed outbreak of political untest in Southeastern Europe, as evidenced by the arming of Roumania, is political uniest in Southeastern Europe, as evidenced by the arming of Roumania, is probably having a disturbing effect on European money markets. The reports in the steel trade are, upon the whole, better. Federal Steil, in particular, shows an increase in seles of plates and bars. On the present reduced scale the railroads are more likely to buy structural fron and rails. Mr. Huntington's will is expected on Friday at 18 o'clock. From the buying of Southern Pacific it has been forecast with reasonable certainty, and it is unlkely that any aiteration in his holdings will be made that will affect the market condition of the stock. Outarlo and Western has shared in some measure the strength of the other hard-coal measure the strength of the sheep of a good character. There is little reason to doubt that the splitting of the stock will become an accomplished fact this fall. In such case the payment of a small dividend will probably be part of the programme.

St. Louis, Thursday, Aug. 23, 1900.

A satisfactory and encouraging condition of sinals continues to prevail in local banking circles, and to-day snother active and large business was transacted at the different banks and trust companies of the city.
